

LOSS OF LIFE

Through Floods and Storms In the West is About 1,250 Souls

Martial Law Prevails at Scene of the Latest Catastrophe.

It Is Now Believed That the Number of Dead at Heppner, Oregon, Will Not Exceed 300.— Later Details of the Cloudburst.

New York, June 17—Reports received here today show that the total loss of life through tornadoes for the year thus far aggregate 250. Accurate reports of the loss of life by floods have not been received but the total, it is known, will bring the loss of life through tornado and flood to approximately 1250.

MARTIAL LAW PREVAILS.

Heppner, Ore., June 17—Martial law prevails here while the work of rescuing the bodies of the victims of Sunday's catastrophe continues. One hundred and fifty bodies have been buried and more are being found although it is believed now that the dead will not exceed 300. Free lunch houses have been established for everybody. Relief parties with money and provisions are arriving from all towns. A second special train with provisions and $7,000 in cash raised by Portland today reached the Lexington end of the railroad and is being forwarded by team. Ghouls are looting the bodies in the wreckage.

RUMBLING FIRST HEARD.

Pendleton, Ore., June 17—Three men who survived the flood at Heppner, D. R. Ball, J. J. Kelly, and A. P. Bradbury, have arrived here after having witnessed the destruction of the town and assisted in the work of rescue. Mr. Kelly said:

"The storm was something fearful. It could be easily seen from the city. The people were gathered in their yards and on their porches to witness the display of the heavens."

"The rain was not falling in Heppner but could be seen some distance away. Sharp flashes of lightning were accompanied by thunder. Then, suddenly, the thunder died away and left an ominous silence. Then a low rumbling noise was heard, very faint at first, but growing louder."

"As the noise grew louder and louder, the people became frantic. But in a moment, the van of the flood burst into view around the curve of Willow creek, carrying in its crest, the cabins and houses, which stood in its path."

FIVE HUNDRED LOST.

Heppner, Ore., June 17—It is now known that fully 500 persons lost their lives in the flood caused by the cloudburst which swept away the greater part of this town Sunday night. Many of the bodies will never be recovered so the exact number of deaths will never be known.

A conservative estimate of the property loss and destruction of property, places it at a million dollars.

One hundred and fifteen corpses have been hastily buried in wooden boxes and some were merely wrapped in blankets. Wagonloads of dead are on their way to the cemetery. Heppner itself has now been pretty well searched, except in piles of debris where it is thought great numbers of bodies will be found.

Between Ione and Heppner there are great piles of debris, but the flood passed so quickly that the roads have not been seriously damaged. The railroad track, however, from Lexington on, is badly torn up.

It looks strange to see the heavy steel rails bent and twisted like corkscrews and the heavy timbers splintered like matchwood.

In Heppner itself the flood swept a clean path a mile long and two blocks wide through the town, following generally the course of Willow creek.

Nearly all the eastern and northern parts of the town are destroyed. The bodies are being buried in the cemetery rapidly, the summer weather making this course necessary.

Through railway connection can hardly be expected before Friday. All crops are destroyed.

The Oregon Railway and Navigation track was opened as far as Lexington, nine miles away yesterday afternoon, and from now on the work of relief can proceed more expeditiously, as the wagon road from here to Lexington is good and supplies can be brought in by team in a few hours after they reach the end of the railroad.

It probably will be several days before the track is opened to Heppner as the roadbed is washed out for almost the entire distance of nine miles.

The scene from the hillside overlooking the town is one of desolation. Huge piles of wreckage in many cases 5 feet high, fill the canyon from half a mile below the town.

Immense boulders, weighing tons were rolled along by the flood and deposited in the midst of the town or lodged against buildings. An appeal has been sent out for men to clean the streets and to assist in searching the great mass of debris for bodies.

As the debris, which is covered many feet deep by mud, is cleared away, more bodies are found.

CREEK SUBSIDES.

Heppner, Ore., June 17—Willow creek, which on Sunday wiped out more than one-half of this town, has shrunk to the size of a brook.

About $500,000 worth of property has been destroyed at Heppner. A rigid emergency government impresses able-bodied men in the work of saving the town from plague-breeding diseases.

Several thousand persons have arrived from outside places and an army of men and horses is sifting great wastes of debris.

An army of women took charge of the bodies.

The bodies are borne to Robert's hall, to be washed and dressed by women, to be shrouded in coarse white clothes and then laid in rough wood boxes.

There is no time for ceremony. The floors swim with a half diluted mud that drips from the victims, but the living pass through it or sweep it out when it gets too deep.

The rough boxes go to the cemetery, not singly in hearses, but many at a time piled high in the wagons.

The town must be cleansed if it would escape pestilence. It must have more men to help in cleaning and provisions to feed the men would be welcome. Many families are entirely destitute, all their worldly possessions having been carried away.

The whole row of houses next to the creek was swept away. Spectators of the calamity describe the structures as falling like card houses. The buildings were tossed about like bobbins and most of them fell completely to pieces.

The town had perhaps 250 houses; nearly 200 were demolished. The whole business part of the town would have been swept away had not the Palace hotel, a heavy brick structure, diverted the current.

The elements for the past few weeks have been having a wild revel and have swept in the neighborhood of one thousand human beings to an awful death. Estimates of the damage done wrought by the floods and cyclones throughout the country vary all the way from $10,000,000 to $50,000,000 and from 20,000 to 50,000 people have been rendered homeless. The following estimates of loss of life are believed to be as accurate as possible:

May 15 to June 16—Lives lost by floods—

Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kas.—60.

Topeka, Kas.—75.

St. Louis and vicinity—15.

East St. Louis—10.

In Iowa—20.

June 1 to 10—Forest fires swept through New York and New England.

June 1—Tornado at Gainesville, Ga. demolished mills and killed over 100 people.

June 7—Cloudburst demolished cotton mills at Pasetot and Clifton, South Carolina, and 50 people killed.

June 7—Bolt of lightning struck a church near Nelsonville, O., and killed two girls and stunned all attending Sunday school.

June 5—Steamer Arequipa foundered off coast of Chili and eighty drowned.

June 11—Midnight—King Alexander and Queen Draga assassinated in palace at Belgrade, Servia.

June 15—Cloudburst at Heppner, Oregon, 300 to 500 lives lost.

STRICKEN

On His Wedding Day and the Groom Elect May Die—Strange and Sudden Affliction.

Kokomo, Ind., June 17—Bert Bergan has been stricken on the eve of his wedding day and lies at his boarding house in this city in an unconscious condition. Bergan is an engineer for the Pan Handle railroad company. He was to have been married to Miss Gertrude Steele of Liberty, Ind., Monday.

On the morning of his wedding he did not appear. Mrs. Hazelton, with whom he boards, rapped on his door. There was no response and she entered the room. He was lying on his bed in a stupor. Physicians pronounced the trouble congestion of the brain.

In Liberty a party had assembled at the station to meet the groom-elect. He did not come and the party finally broke up, the guests returning to their homes.

Bergan's condition seems slightly improved. He can not talk but seems to understand the questions that were put to him, nodding his head in reply. Miss Steele hurried to her lover's bedside and it is hoped he may recover.

BLAMES THE JEWS

St. Petersburg, June 17—Father John, of Cronstadt, whose fiery condemnation of the Kishinev massacre, was published in the St. Petersburg liberal newspapers, has published a letter in the anti-Semitic Quania, the new organ in St. Petersburg, in which he says:

"From the newspaper accounts succeeding the first published reports concerning the Kishinev catastrophe, I have concluded that the Jews themselves were the cause of the recent disorders. I am convinced now that one cannot lay all the blame upon the Christians, who were provoked to the disorder by the Jews."

No Russian paper of any weight, except the Novoe Vremya has attempted to palliate the massacre or lay the blame on the Jews. Prince Urosoff, hitherto Lieutenant Governor of the Government of Tambo, has been appointed Provisional Governor of Bessarabia, in succession to Governor Von Rooben, who was dismissed as a result of the Kishinev massacre.

HUSBAND USES HIS WIFE FOR TARGET.

St. Paul, Minn., June 17—Just to show that he could shoot with the pistol, Mrs. Cora A. Gerard, a very attractive little woman, who is suing for divorce, declared in court that her husband stood her up at a distance and tried to see how near he could place the bullets to her body without hitting her.

Mrs. Gerard was formerly well known in Milwaukee, where she has many relatives.

TO A CRISP

M'MASTERS WAS BURNED WHILE TRYING TO SAVE SON.

Cook Who Caused the Gasoline Ex- plosion Escaped Unhurt—Acci- dent at Plain City.

Columbus, June 17—At Plain City near Columbus, P. J. McMasters, a restaurant proprietor was burned to death this morning. A gasoline stove in the kitchen exploded and the house was immediately in flames. McMasters in an upper room lowered his wife to the ground by a sheet, but while trying to rescue his little boy was smothered by the flames. The boy was later rescued by the neighbors. A cook who caused the trouble escaped unhurt. McMasters was burned to a crisp.

Secure Your Seats.

Over half of the tickets for tomorrow night's concert were sold by noon today. Those expecting good seats had better reserve them at once at Collins' drug store.

NEW GAS WELL

Homer, O., June 17—The gas well drilled in on the Theodore Haynes farm by the Mt. Vernon gas company, about a quarter of a mile west of this place came in on Tuesday night, and shows a pressure of about four and a half million feet of gas per day.

The well on the Thomas Griffith farm, about half a mile south of town came in at noon today, and is about a million and a half well. The two wells, however, will probably be shot, when it is thought that the pressure will be largely increased. This latter well is owned by the Logan company.

NEW KING

Will Be Ruled by the Army—Peter Will Practically be a Royal Prisoner.

Belgrade, June 17—The position of King Peter promises to be little more than that of a royal captive, and the real government of the country will be a military dictatorship under the leaders of the revolution, Colonel Maschin and Colonel Mitschitsch. The new King is almost without any personal adherents, and the ruling spirit of the army, it is thought probable, would just as readily murder him as they did his predecessor should he oppose their aims.

At the present moment the whole country is under military rule, and although no Prefects in the country districts have been revoked, each is accompanied by an army officer, who attends the Prefect wherever he goes, even to the telephone. This policy has led to one good result, not a single case of disorder anywhere has been reported.

Extremely forcible arguments were found necessary to suppress the radical aspirations of a republic. The foremost advocate of the creation of a republican form of government was Ljolumir Schokovics, the editor of the Belgrade Objeck. Finding him impervious to arguments the conspirators invited him to a dinner at the Officers' Club last Saturday.

During the dinner his host told him that unless he agreed to support Prince Peter Gara-Georgevitch there would be one man less in Belgrade that night. Mr. Schokovics yielded to the force of this reasoning, and accepted the situation. He is now minister of justice in the new government.

DEFEAT

Of Panama Canal Treaty is Sought by Powerful Lobby of Money Inter- ests—Backed by Germans.

Washington, June 17—News comes from Bogota that a powerful lobby, representing great financial interests in the United States is working hard to defeat the ratification of the Panama canal treaty. They are receiving valuable aid from representatives of Germany, who are spreading the report that a German and English syndicate, backed by the governments of those countries, stand ready to build the canal on much better terms to Colombia than those offered by the United States. It is stated that money is being used lavishly among the members of the Colombian Congress to effect the defeat of the treaty.

It is the power of this money applied to a people so susceptible to its influences that is most feared. A few days more will determine whether President Roosevelt will exercise the right of election which the Spooner act confers and reopen negotiations with Nicaragua.

From reports received from the State department's diplomatic agents in Colombia and from the agents of the Panama canal company, through Mr. William Nelson Cromwell, the conclusion has been reached that the votes favorable to ratification may be expected only from the members from Panama, Cauca and Antioquia, which provinces would receive practically all the benefits arising from the construction of the water way.

It is further stated that these states are prepared, if the treaty is defeated, to take arms against the present government and precipitate a civil war, having for its object either the re-establishment of a government friendly to the United States canal or the setting up of a new state composed of the Isthmian provinces.

The popular sentiment is said to be so strongly in favor of the canal that it would lead to a revolution in the event of the rejection of the treaty by the Colombian congress.

LIPTON

Received Assurance of King's Good Wishes Before He Started for America Today.

London, June 17—Sir Thomas Lipton and Designer Fife left London for their trip across the Atlantic this morning. Just before starting Sir Thomas received the following telegram from Windsor Castle: "As you are just about leaving for America, let me wish you a prosperous journey and all possible good luck for the great race in August." (Signed) "EDWARD R. I."

Lipton said he was starting with greater confidence than ever before. He believed he now has a winning boat.

Fortune for Them.

Kokomo, Ind., June 17—Mrs. Bertha Ellis, a waitress has fallen heir to a fortune estimated at $40,000, part of the estate of Charles C. Mobery, of Anderson county, Tenn., who died in 1886. Mrs. Ellis and Clem and Rufus Loudrum of this city, are great-grandchildren of Mobery, though they had never heard of their ancestor until they answered an advertisement for the heirs. The trustee of the estate has acknowledged heirship. The Loudrum brothers are day laborers.

EWEN AN EXILE

Lexington, Ky., June 17—B. J. Ewen, the principal witness against Jett and White, became an exile from Jackson this morning. Accompanied by his daughter, Mattie, and a guard of soldiers he arrived in Lexington and has gone to the home of friends. Ewen says he has no plans for the future. He will locate in Lexington.

Russell's Mistake.

New York, June 17—Russell Sage will this year pay personal taxes upon an assessment of $2,000,000. This is due to a mistake which Mr. Sage made in the date when he could finally appear to have his assessment corrected or reduced.

It was assumed when Mr. Sage did not appear at the tax office for the purpose of "swearing off" his assessment of $2,000,000 before March 1, that he was willing to allow the increase to go unprotested. In past years he has been assessed for only $600,000.

Pallbearer Killed.

ARGUMENTS

Now Being Made In the Murder Trial at Jackson

Exciting Incident In Court Room This Morning

Over Lawyer Called Another a Liar But Elisor Jones Kept Them Apart--Men Charged With Arson Are Not Yet Set at Liberty.

Jackson, Ky., June 17—The defense in the Jett and White murder trial having finished its testimony last night arguments are being made in the celebrated case today. Six speeches will be made.

When court convened this morning the arguments before the jury were commenced. Judge B. Futz French, the noted Perry county feudist, led off for the defense. He had not gone far in his talk when he aroused County Attorney Blanton and the latter jumped to his feet and called French down. The colloquy between the lawyers grew hotter and French called Blanton a liar. Blanton sprang at French and they would have clinched had not Elisor Jones grabbed Blanton and pulled him back. They had no revolvers.

The soldiers had searched every man entering the court room or there might have been a different tale to tell.

IDENTIFIED

By the Widow as the Man Who Mur- dered Her Husband—The Three Cases Continued.

Columbus, O., June 17—Lewis Harmon, one of the trio of ex-convicts that robbed and murdered Geo. Geyer a farmer near Alton in this county, has been identified by the widow as the man who fired the shot that killed her husband. In the confession made by Harmon and Otis Loveland, who is under arrest also, the responsibility for firing the shot was placed on Miles Willingford, a Texas horse-thief, still at liberty.

Harmon and Loveland, in company with A. C. Greenlee, the barkeeper at the saloon from which they started on their miserable mission of slaughter, were arraigned in the police court. Congressman D. C. Badger appeared for Greenlee, publicly repudiating the statement that he had been engaged to defend the others in the case. The court was asked to appoint attorneys to defend them.

All three men pleaded not guilty and the cases were continued.

COLOR LINE

Drawn in an Indiana Town—Negro Conductor Pulled from Street Car. Several Shots Fired.

Evansville, Ind., June 17—The color line was drawn at Howell, a railroad station two miles below here, late yesterday afternoon. The tracks of the Evansville street car company extend to Howell, and for several days workmen have been laying new tracks. The passengers are transferred at the edge of the town to another car that was in charge of a negro. This car ran into the heart of the city.

The negro had been warned, it is understood, not to stay on the car, and several angry citizens boarded it yesterday afternoon and forced him to get off. They then took charge of the car and brought it to the edge of the city, where it was turned over to a white conductor.

The negro, it is said, will be kept out of town. Sentiment against the negro is strong at Howell, and some time ago there was a society formed to run all negroes out of town.

tell. Judge Redwine threatened to send Blanton to jail and admonished French meekly to temper his language. Blanton had said that witness Crawford had been arrested for arson and French denied the statement to the jury.

Judge Hargis under fire on the witness stand admitted that he will pay the attorney fees in the case providing the mother of prisoner Jett makes the request. The witnesses for the defense were confused by the hot shot of Prosecutor Byrd.

STILL IN JAIL.

Jackson, Ky., June 17—As telegraphed the Advocate yesterday the grand jury failed to indict Crawford and Thorp who were arrested on the charge of burning Ewen's hotel, but they are still held by order of the prosecuting attorney. An effort will be made to get a special grand jury to indict them.

The affair has caused considerable excitement, but it is certain the officials will not interfere and the negro conductor will not resume his place in the morning.

When the Howell car was attacked several shots were fired. There were about 30 men in the gang. Eye-witnesses say no shots were fired at the negro, and that the men shot their revolvers in the air, merely to scare the negro. The people of Howell declare that they will permit no negro to set foot within the limits of the town.

Following the street car incident, three negroes in the Louisville and Nashville railroad yards were attacked at a late hour last night and beaten with clubs. The mob was composed of citizens and boys in the town and numbered a dozen or more men. Several shots were fired, but none was aimed at the negroes. The men were making a search of the yards for vagrant negroes and the three were discovered in a box car. They were dragged out and beaten. They were told to leave town at once and did so. The negroes were greatly excited. Sentinels have been placed throughout the yards tonight and all strange negroes will be forced to leave. Much excitement prevails in the place and the authorities here have been appealed to for aid.

A Family Feud.

Nelsonville, O., June 17—During a saloon row at Doanville, a mining town near this city, James Carey, it is alleged, stuck Harvey Nixon with a beer glass. James Nixon, father of the boy, came to this city this evening and swore out a warrant for Carey for assault and battery. While he was here, another son, Grover Nixon met Fred Carey, a brother of James, on the company store platform at Doanville, and a fight ensued, during which Carey bit Nixon in the leg. Telephone reports state that Doanville is in a fever of excitement, and more trouble is expected.

RUNAWAY

In Which Dr. Johnson and Two Ladies From Alexandria Had a Thrilling Experience.

Granville, O., June 17—A frightful runaway occurred in Granville on Tuesday afternoon. Dr. Johnston of Alexandria, and two ladies, were coming up town about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and just as they were entering the village near Kyleville, their horse frightened at something alongside of the road, and swerving suddenly to one side, the doctor was thrown out upon the ground, with great violence, but fortunately escaped serious injury. The horse continued on its way down Broadway, with the two helpless women in the buggy. The lines had fallen around the horse's feet, which added to his fright. At the corner of Broadway and Prospect streets the animal collided with a post and was knocked down. The women sprang from the buggy and escaped injury, although they were badly frightened.

GRANVILLE

Has Entered Into Its Annual Slumber Now that College Boys and Girls Have Gone.

Granville, O., June 17—Granville has assumed its wonted midsummer condition of innocuous quietude, or in other words, has entered into its annual Rip Van Winkle slumber from which it will not arouse until next fall brings the army of young students back again. The schools on the hill are closed; the boys and girls have gone to their respective homes, and some to their midsummer vacation work, and an air of peace and repose that always indicates the midsummer vacation broods over the little city of schools. The Sem. girls are missed from their daily constitutionals about the village and even the most crabbed faultfinder would be glad to be disturbed at night by the familiar war whoop or class yell of the D. U. boys. The indications are favorable for an increased attendance at college and even greater prosperity in all the schools next year than ever in the past.

CUT THROAT

AND NOW HE WONDERS WHY HE DID THE DEED.

Peculiar Case of Lewis Dixon a Young Man of Zanesville—He Drank Two Glasses of Beer.

Zanesville, O., June 17—Lewis Dixon a young man who lives on Fifth street, came down street and took a glass of beer on the way down. He later took a girl to the circus and home again, and while en route to his own home drank one more glass of beer. All this, according to his own story, related to the doctor.

Arriving home, he felt peculiar and put a razor in his pocket and started out for a walk, though it was midnight. He went Putnamward and halted at a printing establishment conducted by his brother. He went inside turned on the gas, unsheathed the razor and drew the blade across his neck.

He then started on a run across the street to Dr. Yost's office, aroused the doctor and his self-inflicted injury was dressed after the loss of considerable blood.

Now he is sincerely wondering why he did it, stating to the doctor that he is not in any kind of trouble, did not have any kind of trouble Monday or Monday night, and hasn't the least idea why he attempted to kill himself.

Dr. Yost offers the opinion that Dixon was drugged, though he is not a drinking man and can establish the fact that he drank but two glasses of beer Monday night. It is a peculiar case to say the least.

LEASES

BEING GOBBLED UP AT LOCK BY COMPANIES.

Farmers are Reaping the Benefit of the Scramble for Land—The New Oil Fields.

Lock, O., June 17—Representatives of the Ohio Central, Ohio Fuel Supply and Logan Gas companies were here this week and leased about all the land not already covered by leases, paying from $3 to $5 cash per acre. The tracts taken Monday were mostly small ones, comprised of only a few acres each, the large farms having been taken before.

The activity is due to the oil strike at Croton, this place being about half way between Croton and Homer and in direct line for either oil or gas. The companies desire to be in on the ground floor in event more oil is found and the farmers are reaping the benefit.

It is said that a small shot was purposely used at the Croton well, the gas operators desiring to keep the territory in the background until all desirable territory has been taken. The next six months will see a number of wells drilled in and in the meantime the operators and speculators will hang about like flies at the mouth of a molasses barrel.

FUNERAL

Of 'Squire Simon Shaffer, Who Died Suddenly Takes Place at Croton on Thursday.

Last spring he was re-elected to the office of justice and yesterday his term expired. As he had a lawsuit to hear he took the oath and entered upon his new term. Without leaving his chair he began listening to the arguments of attorneys on a question of law and it was while this was in progress that he was stricken, less than three minutes after he had taken the oath of office.

The deceased was a life-long resident of Croton and was highly esteemed. He is survived by his second wife and two sons. He was vice president of the Croton Oil and Gas company.

GRAB SALE

IN PROGRESS AT DODD'S 5 AND 10 CENT STORE.

A Novel Method of Advertising a Business—Diamond Ring Will be Given Away.

W. P. Lutherin, who recently purchased Dodd's 5 and 10 cent store, has adopted a novel plan of advertising his business. Various articles have been wrapped into neat bundles and placed in the show windows. By paying 10 cents a customer is permitted to have his choice of the bundles. Every package contains an article worth at least 10 cents, and many articles are worth more.

Each package also contains a number and the person getting the lucky one will be given the first prize, which is a beautiful white diamond ring, worth at least $35 to $40. The mounting will be changed to suit the taste of the winner.

Other articles of value are silver berry spoons, oyster knives, olive forks, cuff button sets, belt buckles, fancy glass vases, knives and forks, watch chains, full ton of china ware and many other useful household articles. It is impossible to lose, according to Mr. Lutherin's plan, as every purchaser gets a 10 cent value whether a prize is won or not.

To avoid any suspicion of favoritism no clerks or anybody connected with the store will be permitted to take a chance. The purpose of this sale is to advertise the many useful and handy articles in the store, none of which are sold for over 10 cents. It

THOSE ROOSEVELT SPEECHES.

A little trick of the President's during his "swing around the circle" was to give to the Associated Press representative accompanying him type-written copies of his address to be delivered at any given point, to be sent out broadcast over the country as the speech he delivered there. That speech, as sent out, was carefully built and edited. It was not the speech he delivered, however, by a long shot. Mr. Roosevelt said many things in his speeches that did not reach the people of the country, and things he did not want the country at large to hear. He was caught at his little game by the Butte, Montana, Miner. That paper sent a stenographer to hear Mr. Roosevelt and took his speech down verbatim, and it differed materially from the type-written copy sent to that office early in the evening. He said many things of a radical nature, and they were things he would not want the business interests of the country to get hold of, for fear that there would not be the same unanimity in endorsing him for nomination as there seems to have been lately. If this isn't saying things on the stump that he does not say off of it, what would you call it? If this isn't approaching the game of the fakir who sells soap from the tail gate of a wagon, name it? That sort of work has neither the color nor odor of statesmanship.

BOURKE COCKRAN'S ORATORY BEFORE IRISH MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT.

Few parallels can be recalled with the reception tendered by the Irish Nationalists in London to Bourke Cockran, the eminent American statesman and lawyer. That party's whole parliamentary representation assembled in the corridor of the commons to do him honor, and there he destroyed with that crushing oratory familiar here the last vestiges of argument advanced by Mr. Chamberlain to support his new tariff plans. True to the old views he so forcibly expressed on the floor of Congress, he asserted the truth, proved by reason and experience that protection means doing business at a loss, which must be remedied by taxation. He exhibited the verbal cartoon of the farmer paying for a dozen pairs of stockings with four bushels of wheat because manufacturers demand protection for their never maturing infant industries. It was a telling thought that England must create a supreme court, or surrender independence to the colonies. With typical Irish emotion his hosts proffered a seat in parliament. He refused to expatriate himself, as did Andrew Carnegie, who cared nothing for British citizenship, the necessary prerequisite. Mr. Cockran can find exercise for his talents here.

The great American trouble is indigestion, largely the result of the great American habit of hurry. Hastily swallowed meals are probably the greatest cause of indigestion. The stomach is given more than its share of work and is weakened. The first thing to do in correcting the trouble is to stop fast eating. The next thing is to take a good digestive tonic to strengthen the digestion and to enrich the impoverished blood. Such a tonic is Walther's Peptonized Port, a simple combination of pure pepsin and good port wine, to be had at all druggists. Small size 50 cents, large size $1.00.

VARNER ALIMONY SUIT WON BY THE WIFE.

Other Cases in Common Pleas—Probate Court Notes—The Transfers of Property.

In the case of Maggie Varner vs. Alva H. Varner, being a petition for alimony filed by plaintiff, and in which a cross petition was filed by defendant, the Court found in favor of Mrs. Varner; that the defendant was not entitled to a divorce and dismissed the cross petition at his costs; the Court further decreed that the defendant should pay his wife the gross sum of $500 and $200 a year thereafter, beginning August 1, 1903; that $200 of the $500 should be paid in one year, and $300 of that sum to be paid in 2 years all to bear interest at 6 per cent, the payment of which was made a lien upon defendant's real estate. W. C. Devenney vs. Samuel S. Devenney, an action to construe item 4 of the will of J. P. Devenney, late of McKean township, this county. Item 4 refers to a thousand dollars that the executor must keep invested and pay the interest to W. C. Devenney. Samuel Devenney, the executor, invested the money in government bonds, and now W. C. Devenney claims that the bond itself should be handed to him, if he gave security that it will be redelivered at the time of his death. Samuel Devenney claims that he is simply entitled to the thousand dollars and is ready to pay it at once. W. C. is willing to receive the thousand dollar bond but is not willing to receive simply the thousand dollars. The reason for the difference is that the bond has a premium which makes it worth over a thousand dollars.

The question is being heard upon a demurrer to the petition, which asks a construction of item 4 of the will. Fitzgibbon, Taylor for W. C. Devenney and Judge S. M. Hunter for Samuel Devenney, the executor.

Post Office Scandal.

Washington, June 17—The copying of the report of the investigation of the postoffice department made in 1900 by Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow over the alleged suppression of which there has been a decided stir, is completed. For two days a special force of stenographers labored overtime in order to meet the wishes of the postmaster general that copies might be completed for delivery to newspaper men for publication Thursday morning. The report occupies fifty pages of folio type written matter and is said to be the most comprehensive statement relative to the postoffice scandal ever given out at the department.

Mr. Payne declined to discuss the matter today, but it is understood that many of the allegations made by Tulci against the administration former postmaster generals are sustained.

'PHONE COMPANY

Increases Capital from $60,000 to $100,000 and Will Issue Preferred Stock.

Within the past few months the Newark Independent Telephone Company has increased the number of its subscribers from 650 to over 1100 and the demand for telephones continues. The demand is undoubtedly due to the brand new equipment and central energy service coupled with the fact that within a short time telephone exchanges have been built in Utica, Johnstown, Croton, Pataskala and Homer, giving Newark patrons direct communication with several hundred people living in villages or on farms throughout the country.

In order to extend its plant here in Newark to supply the demand for 'phones the Newark company has just received authority from the secretary of state to increase its capital stock from $60,000 to $100,000. At a meeting of the directors Tuesday night, it was decided to issue at the present time $20,000 of preferred stock. The money will be used in putting in new telephones.

FRANK D. HALL'S UNUSUAL OFFER.

Sell Dr. Howard's Specific at Half Price, and Guarantees a Cure.

"It isn't often that I have faith enough in the medicine put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said Frank D. Hall to an Advocate man who dropped into his store "but I am glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that basis.

"The Dr. Howard company, in order to get a quick introduction sale, authorizes me to sell their regular 50c bottles at half price, 25c, and although I have sold a lot of it, and have guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory. "I am still selling the specific at half price, although I cannot tell how long I shall be able to do so, and any one who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion, or a general played-out condition, ought to take advantage of this chance. You can tell your readers that if they are not satisfied with the specific they can come right back to my store and I will cheerfully refund their money." Ju 3-11-17

RELIEF TRAIN WRECKED.

Lexington, Ore., June 17—The relief train from Pendleton for Heppner was cut in two while crossing a creek by the bridge breaking, thirty miles north of here at 3 a. m. Four persons and two horses were drowned. The front portion of the train got across and the party reached Heppner. A relief train from Walla Walla is expected this afternoon with food and coffins. The latter are most needed. Splintered boards from wrecked houses are now used as coffins. For twelve miles down Willow Creek are piles of debris all supposed to contain bodies.

TOP MAST

Of the New Cup Defender Reliance Was Broken During a Race This Afternoon.

Larchmont, N. Y., June 17—The new cup defender Reliance lost her top-mast here this afternoon in an eight knot blow during a race with the Constitution and Columbia.

The accident occurred at 1:50 p. m., about four minutes after the big boats had gone over the line for a thirty mile contest. A southwesterly puff somewhat stronger than the prevailing breeze, caught the big balloon sail of the Reliance and filling it out, with a snap, broke the topmast about six feet above the doubling. The three yachts had a splendid start and the accident was entirely unexpected. The Columbia was slightly ahead of the Reliance at the time.

SMOOTH SWINDLER

Caught In Newark By Sheriff Anderson Whom He Attempted to "Do"—Negro Taken to Athens For Trial—He Worked a Unique Game.

George Morton, alias Frank Jones, alias E. Earl Cursweneo, alias many other names in an attempt to work a smooth swindle on Sheriff W. H. Anderson, Jr., came to grief Tuesday night, and the proposed victim became captor.

About 1:30 or 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon a well dressed, large, good appearing mulatto, came into the office of Sheriff Anderson at the court house, and going up to the desk told the sheriff in a low tone that he would like to speak to him.

Sheriff Anderson went to one side of the office with the negro, who said that he knew where he could lay his hands on Jim Lowry, wanted in Shelby, N. C. for the murder of the Chief of Police of that town some months ago, and for whom there was a large reward. He gave Sheriff Anderson the name of Frank Jones, and told him that he and the sheriff of Athens county had nearly cornered Lowry last winter. He suggested that Anderson telegraph the sheriff at Athens to ascertain if the reward offered for Lowry's capture was still good.

Sheriff Anderson told Jones to return later, and in the meantime telegraphed to Athens and also to Shelby, N. C. From the latter place an answer came saying that a reward of $700 was still standing for Lowry's capture.

Later Sheriff Anderson was called to the long distance telephone by Sheriff Murphy of Athens county, and requested by that official to hold the negro, who was himself badly wanted there. Jones did not show up at the appointed time and Sheriff Anderson gave a description of the fellow to the night police. While talking to two of the officers Jones came along and was immediately arrested and locked up in the city prison.

Sheriff A. A. Murphy of Athens county, came to Newark this morning and told the following story of his experience with the negro who had attempted to swindle Sheriff Anderson:

"On the 21st of last December, I received a letter from the Chief of Police of Shelby, N. C., that in a day or two a negro detective would visit me, and assist me in arresting James Lowry, a negro who was wanted there for burglary. The letter stated that the detective would have the information as to where Lowry could be found, and everything that would assist in making the arrest. The next day, December 22, the negro came. He gave me the name of George Morton and told me that Lowry was working at New Pittsburgh, a mining town near Athens, but in Hocking county.

"I asked him why he had not gone to the sheriff of Hocking county, and he said that I had been recommended to him. He said that Lowry had pawned a gold watch in Rendville for $10, and showed me a pawn ticket with the case and movement number, which corresponded to that in the letter from the Shelby, N. C. officer.

"Morton told me that Lowry could not be taken in New Pittsburgh, as easily as in Athens, and that if he could get $15 he would use $10 to get the watch and $5 to stake Lowry in a poker game, as he was desperately fond of gambling. In this way Lowry could be enticed into Athens.

"Everything looked so straight that I gave the fellow $15 and went with him to the proprietor of a poker game and arranged with him to keep open that night later than usual. Everything was in readiness to capture Lowry, but I never afterward saw Morton, the negro detective.

"I found out afterward that he had worked the same game on several other officers in Ohio and West Virginia, and finally on Sheriff Anderson of this county."

Sheriff Murphy left on B. & O. 103, at 1:35 Wednesday afternoon for Athens taking with him the negro confidence man, and as he believes, all round crook.

ing for an injunction restraining further diversion of traffic from the latter's line between Cherry Run, W. Va. and Shippensburg, Pa.

It is its reply the B. & O. denies that it has violated the provisions of its agreements in any way. It further denies that the Pennsylvania railroad has influenced it to break the agreements.

It admits that it owns the majority of the stock of the Consolidated Coal Company, and that this company, in turn, owns the majority of the stock of the Fairmount Coal Company, but denies that the B. & O. has used its stock to control the policy of these companies in shipments of coal.

The B. & O.'s Answer.
Baltimore, June 17—The B. & O. railroad has filed its answer to the suit of the Western Maryland railroad ask-tors. When it is said that the list of contributors comprises such well known humorists of national and international reputation as Robert J. Burdette, S. W. Gillman, Frank L. Stanton, George Ade and others, some idea can be formed of the literary merits of the production. A pathetic feature of the edition that will appeal to all, especially to those who knew his personally, is a page in the book of "Merriek's paragraphs" with a picture of Howard Merriek himself, the inimitable humorist philosopher of the Washington Post, whose recent death has been so sadly and so generally mourned.

I. N. STEVENS

FORMER NEWARK MAN CAME OUT ON TOP.

In Sanctum of Colorado's Governor Fair Commissioners Fight—The Executive Hurt.

Denver, June 17—T. J. O'Donnell, kicked in the stomach; I. N. Stevens, struck on the side of the head; Governor Jas. H. Peabody, hand scratched and leg bruised—these were the casualties as a result of a personal encounter between World's Fair Commissioners O'Donnell and Stevens. Governor Peabody was injured while acting in the capacity of peacemaker. The affair took place in the Governor's inner sanctum. O'Donnell struck the first blow, but when the scrap was over, Mr. Stevens had clearly won on points.

The row started over an investigation of Commissioner-in-Chief Thatcher's accounts. O'Donnell is a prominent Democratic attorney and Stevens is editor and proprietor of the Pueblo Chieftain, the Republican organ of Colorado.

The I. N. Stevens above referred to is an old Newark boy, having been born and brought up in Newark. His father and brother were County Treasurers here at different times. Since going to Colorado Mr. Stevens has been quite prominent in financial and political circles. We are glad to see that he came out on top in this scrap as Newark boys generally do.

SURPRISE

Created Here by Resignation of Col. Stanbery—Cause Given in a Toledo Dispatch.

The resignation of Col. S. B. Stanbery of the Sixth regiment, announced in an Advocate telegram from Columbus yesterday, created no little surprise among Col. Stanbery's many Newark friends. The following from Toledo is of interest in this connection:

"The resignation of Colonel S. B. Stanbery, of the Sixth Ohio Infantry, was sent to Governor Nash Tuesday. His action is ascribed to a heated discussion which occurred in the armory on Sunday, when it was charged by other officers of the regiment that Stanbery had been attempting to dictate the appointment of both commissioned and noncommissioned officers. Fostoria representatives were most emphatic in their declarations and the debate waxed warm.

"Local officers, while refusing to give details of the meeting, say that Colonel Stanbery's step was hasty. They assert that he has made no attempt to dictate appointments further than to use his influence for the selection of good men, irrespective of politics and without consideration of social standing.

"General W. Y. McMacken was loath to accredit Colonel Stanbery's note of resignation to the Adjutant General's office, but the Colonel was firm and insisted that the resignation was final. When told that the Adjutant General had declined to accept the resignation until fully satisfied as to the conditions that brought it about Colonel Stanbery said:

"He must accept it. The only reason I have to assign is pressure of private business."

Tomorrow night's concert at Taylor Hall promises to be the leading musical event of the season.

SEARCHING

FOR HIS LITTLE DAUGHTER IS HARRY LINDSEY.

Newark Railroad Man in Mansfield Endeavoring to Locate His Little Child, Maggie.

A special from Mansfield says: Harry Lindsey, a B. & O. railroad man from Newark, is in the city looking for his little daughter, Maggie Lindsey, aged about 4 years. He received word that the child had been adopted by some people in Mansfield named Nixon, but on investigation he was unable to find any one of that name who had the child. He received a picture of the little girl not long ago, but there was no name of the photographer on the card and he has been going to the local photograph galleries to see if they took a picture of the child. He thinks possibly he might be able to learn something of her whereabouts if he finds the artist who took the picture.

Mr. Lindsey says he and his wife separated some time ago and their children were placed in the children's home at Newark. Later on they began to live together again and wanted the children. The little boy they got, Mr. Lindsey says, but the little girl had been given to some people to raise and he doesn't know where the people are who took the child. He is so anxious to find his little girl that he thinks some of going to the governor to see if he can't help him in his search.

Chronic Sores Eating Ulcers, A Constant Drain Upon the System.

Nothing is a source of so much trouble as an old sore or ulcer, particularly when located upon the lower extremities where the circulation is weak and sluggish. A gangrenous eating ulcer upon the leg is a frightful sight, and as the poison burrows deeper and deeper into the tissue beneath and the sore continues to spread, one can almost see the flesh melting away and feel the strength going out with the sickening discharges. Great running sores and deep offensive ulcers often develop from a simple boil, swollen gland, bruise or pimple, and are a threatening danger always, because, while all such sores are not cancerous, a great many are, and this should make you suspicious of all chronic, slow-healing ulcers and sores, particularly if cancer runs in your family. Face sores are common and cause the greatest annoyance because they are so persistent and unsightly and detract so much from one's personal appearance.

Middle aged and old people and those whose blood is contaminated and tainted with the germs and poison of malaria or some previous sickness, are the chief sufferers from chronic sores and ulcers. While the blood remains in an unhealthy, polluted condition healing is impossible, and the sore will continue to grow and spread in spite of washes and salves or any superficial or surface treatment, for the sore is but the outward sign of some constitutional disorder, a bad condition of the blood and system which local remedies cannot cure. A blood purifier and tonic is what you need. Something to cleanse the blood, restore its lost properties, quicken the circulation and invigorate the constitution, and S. S. S. is just such a remedy.

S. S. S. reaches these old chronic sores through the blood. It goes to the very root of the trouble and counteracts and removes from the blood all the impurities and poisons, and gradually builds up the entire system and strengthens the sluggish circulation, and when the blood has been purified and the system purged of all morbid, unhealthy matter the healing process begins, and the ulcer or sore is soon entirely gone.

S. S. S. contains no mineral or poisonous drugs of any description, but is guaranteed a purely vegetable remedy, a blood purifier and tonic combined and a safe and permanent cure for chronic sores and ulcers. If you have a slow-healing sore of any kind, external or internal, write us about it, and our physicians will advise you without charge. Book on "The Blood and Its Diseases" free.

WINE of CARDUI

to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would use more intelligence in the matter of medicines, observing results, they would find that the doctors' prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for.

In consulting with my druggist he advised McElree's Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me.

You may secure the same relief as Miss Snyder, if you take Wine of Cardui as she took it. Theodor's Black-Draught is the companion medicine of Wine of Cardui and it is a liver and bowel regulator which assists greatly in effecting a cure. If you take these medicines according to directions, the relief and cure is simple. Some cases are cured quickly and others take longer because the disease has run longer. Remember how Miss Snyder took Wine of Cardui and has health. The same medicines are offered you to-day.
